

When you don't know what you are doing, do it neatly.
Comments by Marjorie Sperry on February 17, 2014 at 11:26 AM. Sperry might also be interested in the article on the same subject in the same issue.

'GIANT' load ahead
Whereas the huge piece of equipment headed Saturday after it made its way through Liberia! Page 4A

County to get update on prairie chicken listing
By the staff of the California Department of Fish and Wildlife, Sacramento, Calif. The California Department of Fish and Wildlife (CDFW) is currently reviewing the status of the prairie chicken in California. The prairie chicken is a species of bird that is native to California and is currently listed as a threatened species. The CDFW is currently reviewing the status of the prairie chicken and is expected to release a report on the status of the prairie chicken in California in the next few months.

MONDAY FEBRUARY 17, 2014
LEADER & TIMES
Your daily news source for 127 years

Setting on a good AirFair
The local AirFair is set for a good time. The AirFair is a popular event in the area and is expected to draw a large crowd of people. The AirFair is set for the weekend of February 21-22, 2014, and is expected to be a successful event.

LA workers break record for largest concrete pour
By the staff of the Los Angeles Times, Los Angeles, Calif. A record-breaking concrete pour took place in Los Angeles on Monday, February 17, 2014. The pour was for a large-scale construction project and was completed in a matter of hours. The project is a major infrastructure project and is expected to be completed in the next few months.

Overhead cranes to be the backbone for the new stadium
By the staff of the Los Angeles Times, Los Angeles, Calif. The new stadium in Los Angeles is expected to be a major landmark. The stadium is being built on a site that was previously occupied by a large parking lot. The stadium is expected to be completed in the next few months and is expected to be a major attraction in the area.

'No global warming for 17 years 3 months' — a Monckton Analysis
By the staff of the Los Angeles Times, Los Angeles, Calif. A new analysis by a climate scientist has found that there will be no global warming for 17 years, 3 months, and 17 days. The analysis is based on a model that takes into account the current rate of global warming and the amount of greenhouse gases in the atmosphere. The analysis is expected to be a major contribution to the ongoing debate about global warming.

Endangered person advisory for teenage Mo. girl
By the staff of the Los Angeles Times, Los Angeles, Calif. A teenage girl in Missouri is being considered for an advisory listing as an endangered person. The girl is being considered for this listing because of her involvement in a major criminal case. The girl is expected to be a major figure in the case and is expected to be a major attraction in the area.

John Kerry mocks those who deny climate change
By the staff of the Los Angeles Times, Los Angeles, Calif. John Kerry has mocked those who deny climate change. Kerry is a former U.S. Secretary of State and is a well-known figure in the area of climate change. Kerry has been a vocal proponent of climate change and has been a major figure in the ongoing debate about climate change.

John Kerry mocks those who deny climate change
By the staff of the Los Angeles Times, Los Angeles, Calif. John Kerry has mocked those who deny climate change. Kerry is a former U.S. Secretary of State and is a well-known figure in the area of climate change. Kerry has been a vocal proponent of climate change and has been a major figure in the ongoing debate about climate change.