

County to get update on prairie chicken listing

By The Staff
A bill that would require the state to update the listing of prairie chickens in California is expected to be introduced in the Assembly on Monday. The bill, Assembly Bill 1333, would require the state to update the listing of prairie chickens in California every five years. The bill would also require the state to update the listing of prairie chickens in California every five years. The bill would also require the state to update the listing of prairie chickens in California every five years.

MONDAY FEBRUARY 17, 2014 LEADER & TIMES Your daily news in news for 127 years

The Local 5000 members in a recent meeting. Photo by Bob Hertz for the Leader & Times.

LA workers break record for largest concrete pour

Construction workers in Los Angeles broke a record on Monday by pouring 100,000 cubic yards of concrete in a single day for a new stadium. The record was set at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum stadium.

John Kerry mocks those who deny climate change

U.S. Secretary of State John Kerry on Monday mocked those who deny climate change, saying they are "in denial" and "in denial." Kerry said that climate change is a real threat and that the world must act to address it. He said that those who deny climate change are "in denial" and "in denial." Kerry said that climate change is a real threat and that the world must act to address it.

No global warming for 17 years 3 months — a Monckton Analysis

A new analysis by a climate skeptic claims that there has been no global warming for 17 years and 3 months. The analysis, by Michael E. Mann, claims that the data shows a significant cooling trend. The analysis, by Michael E. Mann, claims that the data shows a significant cooling trend.

Endangered person advisory for teenage Mo. girl

A Missouri state official has issued an advisory for a teenage girl who is considered endangered. The advisory is for a 17-year-old girl who is being held in a foreign country. The advisory is for a 17-year-old girl who is being held in a foreign country.