

When you don't know what you are doing, do it neatly.
Comments by Marjorie Sperry in Columns & Opinion on February 17, 2014. Sperry might be a bit more than a little bit of a liberal, but she is not a liberal.

Whereas the huge piece of equipment headed Saturday after it made its way through Liberal! Page 4A

County to get update on prairie chicken listing
By Tom Ichniowski
The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service is expected to announce whether it will list the prairie chicken as an endangered species. The county is expected to receive an update on the listing status of the prairie chicken, which is a native bird of the region. The listing would provide the bird with the same level of protection as other endangered species.

MONDAY FEBRUARY 17, 2014
LEADER & TIMES
Your daily news source for 127 years

Setting on a good AirFair

LA workers break record for largest concrete pour
By Tom Ichniowski
Construction workers in Los Angeles have set a new record for the largest concrete pour in the city's history. The record was set during the construction of a new building. The pour was completed in a matter of hours, demonstrating the workers' skill and efficiency.

'No global warming for 17 years 3 months' — a Monckton Analysis
By Tom Ichniowski
A new analysis by a climate scientist suggests that there will be no significant global warming for the next 17 years and 3 months. The analysis is based on a review of the latest climate data and models. The scientist argues that the current rate of global warming is much slower than previously thought.

Endangered person advisory for teenage Mo. girl
By Tom Ichniowski
A teenage girl in Missouri has been named as an endangered person. The girl is the subject of a federal investigation. The investigation is ongoing, and the girl's identity is being protected. The girl is believed to be in danger of harm.

John Kerry mocks those who deny climate change
By Tom Ichniowski
U.S. Secretary of State John Kerry has mocked those who deny the existence of climate change. Kerry said that climate change is a real and urgent threat to the world. He said that those who deny climate change are putting the lives of future generations at risk. Kerry's comments were made during a speech at a climate conference.

Happy Birthday Ben Worland
Liberal, Missouri