

When you don't know what you are doing, do it neatly.
Comments by Marjorie Sperry on February 17, 2014 at 11:26 AM.
This is a comment on the article When you don't know what you are doing, do it neatly.

Where was the huge piece of equipment headed Saturday after it made its way through Liberal? Page 4A

County to get update on prairie chicken listing
By the Staff
The county is expected to receive a report from the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service on the status of the prairie chicken listing. The report will be due to the county by the end of the month. The county is currently in the process of reviewing the report and will be making a decision on whether to request a change in the listing status.

MONDAY FEBRUARY 17, 2014
LEADER & TIMES
Your daily news source for 127 years

Setting on a good AirFair
The local AirFair is set for Saturday, February 22, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Fairgrounds. The fair will feature a variety of activities, including a car show, a craft fair, and a live music performance. The fair is free and open to the public.

LA workers break record for largest concrete pour
A record was set in Los Angeles as workers completed the largest concrete pour in the city's history. The pour was for a new bridge and took place over a 24-hour period. The concrete was poured from a height of 100 feet.

John Kerry mocks those who deny climate change
Secretary of State John Kerry today took aim at a group of climate change deniers during a speech in London. He said that those who deny the science of climate change are "in denial" and "in denial of the facts."

'No global warming for 17 years 3 months' — a Monckton Analysis
A new analysis by a climate change skeptic claims that there has been no global warming for 17 years and 3 months. The analysis is based on a review of satellite data and is being used to challenge the scientific consensus on climate change.

Endangered person advisory for teenage Mo. girl
A teenage girl in Missouri has been placed on an endangered person advisory list. The girl is believed to be involved in a criminal investigation. The advisory is in place until further notice.

Happy Birthday Ben Worland
A birthday message for Ben Worland, who is celebrating his birthday today. Ben is a member of the community and is known for his contributions to the local area.

Liberal, Missouri
A short notice or advertisement for Liberal, Missouri. The notice mentions a local business or service and provides contact information.