Natural gas offers value as propane prices soar
LIBERAL, Kan. — Propane prices have soared in the past few weeks, and many consumers are turning to natural gas as a more affordable alternative. Natural gas is a cleaner-burning fuel that is also much cheaper than propane. Many consumers are switching to natural gas for their home heating and hot water needs. This switch can save consumers a significant amount of money on their energy bills. Natural gas is also a more readily available fuel than propane, which can be difficult to find in some areas. Consumers who are looking for a more affordable and reliable fuel source should consider switching to natural gas.

Kan. students lobby against sex education bills
LIBERAL, Kan. — A group of students from Liberal, Kan. are lobbying against proposed sex education bills in the state legislature. The students are concerned that the bills would require schools to teach sex education to all students, regardless of their parents' wishes. The students are asking the legislature to repeal the bills. The students are also asking the legislature to give parents more control over their children's education. The students are currently meeting with their representatives in the legislature to voice their concerns. The students are also holding rallies and other events to raise awareness of their cause.

Five-year anniversary of Obama's stimulus renews partisan fight over jobs, economy
LIBERAL, Kan. — The five-year anniversary of President Obama's stimulus package has reignited a partisan debate over the economy and jobs. The stimulus package, known as the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009, was a controversial piece of legislation that provided $787 billion in additional federal spending. Supporters of the package argue that it helped to create jobs and stimulate economic growth. Opponents of the package argue that it increased the national debt and did little to create jobs. The debate over the package continues to this day, with both sides making strong arguments for their position.

Inmate released after more than 4 years in prison
