

Timing has an awful lot to do with the outcome of a rain dance
Thursday Prime Rib
at Village Plaza & Liberal, KS 620-420-4100 Monday - Saturday
Make it a habit every time you're in Liberal to stop by for a delicious meal.

Man pleads guilty in Garden City homicide
A man has pleaded guilty to the murder of a woman in Garden City, Kan. The man, 34, was charged with the first-degree murder of a woman in the city in 2011. The woman was found in a wooded area near her home. The man was arrested in 2012 and charged with the crime. He was found guilty in a trial in 2013. He is currently in prison.

Natural gas offers value as propane prices soar
Propane prices have risen sharply in recent months, leading many consumers to turn to natural gas as a more affordable alternative. Natural gas is a cleaner-burning fuel that is also more readily available in many areas. This shift in consumer behavior has led to an increase in natural gas usage for heating and cooking. Propane prices are expected to continue to rise, making natural gas an even more attractive option for many households.

Miss Kansas Theresa Vail will be coming to Liberal
San Wednesday's edition
LEADER & TIMES
FEBRUARY 20, 2014
Volume 127, Number 10

USD 480 hands present the Liberal Band Festival
The Liberal Band Festival is an annual event that brings together students from various schools in the area. The festival features a variety of musical performances, including marching bands, jazz ensembles, and solo artists. The event is a great opportunity for students to showcase their talents and enjoy live music. The festival is held in a beautiful setting and is a highlight of the school year.

Kan. students lobby against sex education bills
Students in Kansas are actively lobbying against proposed sex education bills. They are expressing their concerns about the content of the bills and their potential impact on their lives. The students are working with their parents and community members to voice their opposition to the bills. They believe that sex education should be based on science and respect for individual beliefs.

Five-year anniversary of Obama's stimulus renews partisan fight over jobs, economy
The five-year anniversary of President Obama's stimulus package has reignited the debate over government spending and the economy. Supporters of the stimulus argue that it helped create jobs and stimulate economic growth. Opponents, however, claim that it led to increased government debt and inflation. The debate continues as the economy remains fragile and the need for fiscal responsibility is emphasized.

Immune released after more than 4 years in prison
A man who had been in prison for over four years has been released. He was found to be immune to the charges against him. The case has raised questions about the legal process and the rights of individuals. The man's release is a significant development in the case, and it highlights the importance of due process in the justice system.

Kansas students lobby against sex education bills
Students in Kansas are actively lobbying against proposed sex education bills. They are expressing their concerns about the content of the bills and their potential impact on their lives. The students are working with their parents and community members to voice their opposition to the bills. They believe that sex education should be based on science and respect for individual beliefs.

Immune released after more than 4 years in prison
A man who had been in prison for over four years has been released. He was found to be immune to the charges against him. The case has raised questions about the legal process and the rights of individuals. The man's release is a significant development in the case, and it highlights the importance of due process in the justice system.