City approves building board
By Matt Quinn
The Liberty City Commission today approved the formation of a new building board, which will oversee the city's building department. The board will be made up of five members, including the city manager and four citizens. The board will meet monthly and will be responsible for reviewing and approving all building permits and other matters related to the city's building department. The board will also be responsible for recommending changes to the city's building code and for overseeing the city's building department's budget. The board will be formed by the end of the month.

Olney's Devon Byrne prepares to defend her title Tuesday
By Scott Hight
Olney's Devon Byrne is preparing to defend her title as the 2014 National Junior Heavyweight Champion on Tuesday night. Byrne, who is 17 years old, is one of the youngest champions in the history of the sport. She will be competing against a former champion in a highly anticipated match. Byrne has been training hard for this fight and is confident that she will be able to defend her title. She has a record of 12 wins and 1 loss and is considered one of the best young fighters in the world. The fight will be held at the Emory University arena in Atlanta, Georgia. Byrne's manager, Scott Hight, is confident that she will be able to defend her title and is looking forward to the fight. Byrne is a very talented fighter and is expected to be a major contender for the world title in the future.
