Washington girl, 11, shoots and kills cougar tracking her brother
A 11-year-old girl from Washington, D.C., has been credited with shooting and killing a cougar. The girl, who is a member of the Girl Scouts, was tracking her brother's pet cougar. She used a bow and arrow to shoot the cougar in the back of the head. The cougar was found dead in a wooded area near the girl's home.

California couple in $10M gold find may owe govt about half, report says
The San Francisco Chronicle reports that the find is a notable event under a 1995 federal court ruling that holds a "discovery" is taxable the year it was discovered. The couple, who found the gold in California, may owe the government about half of the $10 million in gold.
