Local firms invited to bid on bond projects

By MICHELLE DEAN
Liberal, Kan.

Holders up "pie" to the school board time April 15, 2014. The school board is expected to bid on a bond issue for the school district. The bond issue will be for $10 million and will be used to fund a variety of projects, including the construction of a new elementary school, the renovation of an existing elementary school, and the purchase of a new bus. The bond issue will be held on April 15, 2014, at 10 a.m. in the school board meeting room. The school board is expected to receive bids from several local construction firms.

Commissioners explore ousting Ron Warren

By KAREN PHILLIPS and EARL WORTH
Liberal & News

In an irregularly called special session, the Liberal City Commission met on Tuesday, March 4, at 7 p.m. to discuss the possibility of ousting Commissioner Ron Warren. The commission met in private, with Warren's presence, and the meeting was held at the city's new city hall. The commission is expected to make a decision on Warren's future in the coming weeks.

Deputy now fighting battle with cancer

By ROBERT PRICE
Liberal & News

In January 2013, Sheriff County Sheriff's Deputy Bill Keating began to feel ill. The issue is a kind of doctor and "was later found to be a brain tumor on his brain." Keating had been diagnosed with a brain tumor and had been advised to undergo surgery. However, he decided to fight the cancer and is now in remission. He is now working as a deputy sheriff and is looking forward to a bright future.

City adopts ethics code

By KELLY GRIPP
Liberal & News

A recently passed code of ethics for the Liberal City Commission will now make doing city business more accessible to the public. The code of ethics was adopted by the commission on Tuesday, March 4, at 7 p.m. The code of ethics will apply to all members of the commission and will be in effect as of the next meeting. The code of ethics will be available on the city's website.

Olney's countryside charm includes nearby Castle Ashby

It seems like a trip to Olney, England, for the Lincolnshire Dales. The town is a beautiful village, with a church that dates back to the 12th century.
