City adopts ethics code
 By KELLY GIPPI
 Liberal & News

A recently passed code of ethics for the Liberal City Commission will now make doing city business more accessible to the public.

The new code was passed unanimously after the meeting at the City 25 city commission meeting and is available in the city's website.

The new code deals with nine ethical situations.

"I'm glad to see this," he said. "It should have been in place a long time ago."

The new code was modeled after similar ethics codes from Dodge City and Garden City, which both have ethics in state statutes from the Legislature of Kansas municipalities.
