

The more you complain, the longer God makes you live.
Thursday Prime Rib
44 Village Plaza • Denver, CO 80202 • 303.733.4500 • Monday - Saturday
Reservations: 303.733.4500 • www.44village.com

More plans to clean up city
The city of Denver is planning to spend $10 million to clean up the city's streets and sidewalks. The plan includes repaving, curbing, and painting the streets. The city also plans to install more streetlights and to improve the city's drainage system. The plan is part of the city's overall effort to improve the city's infrastructure and to make the city a more attractive place to live and work.

J-A-G files liens against commissioner Warren
The Joint Assurance Group (J-A-G) has filed liens against Commissioner Warren of the Colorado Department of Transportation (CDOT). The liens are for unpaid taxes and fees. J-A-G is a construction company that has worked for CDOT for many years. The liens are the result of a long-standing dispute between the two parties.

Board, LHS teachers discuss grading policies
The Board of Education and the Longmont High School (LHS) teachers are discussing grading policies. The board is considering a proposal to change the way that grades are calculated. The teachers are concerned that the proposal will make it more difficult for them to teach their students. The board is expected to make a decision on the proposal in the near future.

Hunt for missing jet widens
The search for a missing private jet has been widened. The plane was last seen on March 8, 2014, near the town of Longmont, Colorado. The plane was carrying several people and was carrying a large amount of cargo. The search is being conducted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and the Colorado State Police.

NELL endorses school bond plan
The North East Littleton Education Foundation (NELL) has endorsed the school bond plan. The plan is for a $10 million bond issue that will be used to fund a variety of school improvement projects. The plan is expected to be approved by the voters in the next election.

Area schools celebrate Dr. Seuss' birthday
Area schools are celebrating Dr. Seuss' birthday. The celebration includes a variety of activities, including reading, drawing, and singing. The schools are also displaying Dr. Seuss-themed decorations. The celebration is a fun and festive way to honor the author of many beloved children's books.

Sen. Paul, Obama surgeon general nominee 'truly a basher of the Bill of Rights'
Senator Paul has called Obama's surgeon general nominee "truly a basher of the Bill of Rights." Paul is referring to the fact that the nominee has a record of opposing the Bill of Rights. Paul is concerned that the nominee will not protect the rights of the people of the United States.

LEADER & TIMES
Your daily news & views for $27.50/week

GARDEN?
Page 3A

LIBERAL

What you can't get the printed version, go to www.kolorado.com