

The more you complain, the longer God makes you live.
Thursday Prime Rib
44 Village Plaza • Denver, CO 80202 • 303-733-4500 • Monday - Saturday
Must be 21 or older to dine. Reservations accepted at 303-733-4500 or 733-4500.

More plans to clean up city
The city of Denver is planning to launch a new initiative to clean up the city's streets and sidewalks. The initiative will focus on removing graffiti, litter, and other debris from public spaces. The city will be working with community groups and volunteers to carry out the initiative. The city will also be providing resources and training to help community groups and volunteers get started. The initiative is expected to launch in the next few weeks.

J-A-G files liens against commissioner Warren
Lions claim Warren's construction company owes J-A-G money for housing homes. The city of Denver has filed liens against Commissioner Warren's construction company, J-A-G, for unpaid bills. The liens are for the cost of housing homes for the city's homeless population. The city claims that J-A-G has not paid for the homes and has instead used the money for other purposes. The city is now seeking to recover the money through the liens.

Board, LHS teachers discuss grading policies
The LHS Board of Education and teachers are discussing grading policies. The board is looking for ways to improve the grading system and make it more fair and consistent. Teachers are providing input on the current system and suggesting changes. The board is expected to make a decision on the new grading policies in the next few weeks.

Hunt for missing jet widens
The search for a missing private jet has been widened. The jet was last seen on March 10th and is believed to be in the area of the Rocky Mountains. The search is being led by the FBI and other law enforcement agencies. The jet is believed to be carrying several people and is thought to have crashed in a remote area. The search is ongoing and is expected to continue for several days.

NELL endorses school bond plan
The North East Littleton Education Foundation (NELL) has endorsed a school bond plan. The plan would raise money for the construction of new schools and the renovation of existing ones. The plan is expected to be approved by voters in the next few weeks. The NELL is a non-profit organization that supports the education of children in the area.

Area schools celebrate Dr. Seuss' birthday
Area schools are celebrating Dr. Seuss' birthday. The celebration is taking place on March 2nd, Dr. Seuss' birthday. Schools are holding events, reading Dr. Seuss books, and displaying decorations. The celebration is a fun and festive way to honor the author of many beloved children's books.

Sen. Paul, Obama surgeon general nominee 'truly a basher of the Bill of Rights'
Sen. Paul has called Obama's surgeon general nominee 'truly a basher of the Bill of Rights'. Paul is a conservative Republican senator from Kentucky. He has been vocal in his criticism of Obama's policies and nominees. He believes that the nominee is a threat to the Bill of Rights and is calling for his removal from consideration.

LEADER & TIMES
Your daily news & views for $27.50/week

GARDEN?
Page 3A

LIBERAL
Page 3A

When you can't get the printed version, go to www.kodakbulletin.com