

The more you complain, the longer God makes you live.
Thursday Prime Rib
#4 Village Plaza • 2000 N. 2nd St. • 620-628-4500 • Monday - Saturday
Must be 21 or older and have a valid driver's license to make reservations. © 2014 Oldemark

More plans to clean up city
The City of Little Rock is planning to launch a new initiative to clean up the city's streets and sidewalks. The initiative will focus on removing graffiti, litter, and other debris from public spaces. The city is also planning to launch a new program to encourage residents to report graffiti and other issues. The city is also planning to launch a new program to encourage residents to report graffiti and other issues.

J-A-G files liens against commissioner Warren
Little Rock's Joint Architects and Engineers Association (J-A-G) has filed liens against Commissioner Warren. The liens are for unpaid fees. The J-A-G has also filed liens against other city officials. The J-A-G has also filed liens against other city officials.

Board, LHS teachers discuss grading policies
The Little Rock School Board and Little Rock High School teachers are discussing grading policies. The board is considering changes to the grading system. The board is considering changes to the grading system.

Hunt for missing jet widens
The search for a missing jet is widening. The jet was last seen on March 10. The search is now covering a larger area. The search is now covering a larger area.

LEADER & TIMES
TUESDAY MARCH 11, 2014
Your daily news & views for $27.50/week

GARDEN?
Page 3A

NELL endorses school bond plan
The National Education Leadership League (NELL) has endorsed the school bond plan. The plan is for $100 million. The plan is for $100 million.

Area schools celebrate Dr. Seuss' birthday
Area schools are celebrating Dr. Seuss' birthday. The schools are holding events. The schools are holding events.

Sen. Paul, Obama surgeon general nominee 'truly a basher of the Bill of Rights'
Senator Paul and Obama surgeon general nominee are 'truly a basher of the Bill of Rights'. The nominee is a 'truly a basher of the Bill of Rights'.