

The colder the x-ray tube, the more of your body is required on it!
Thursday Edition 2014
A Village Press Librett, 25 E. 63rd Street, NYC • Monday - Saturday
10013 • Tel: 212-692-4400 • Fax: 212-692-4401 • Email: info@villagepress.com

Election begins
Check's office mails first advance ballot today
By [Name] [Date]

The polls opened for a day of voting today, as voters received their first advance ballot in the mail. The process is expected to continue through the week.

Relentless winds
Tuesday's winds reached 44 mph rate of the northwester, gusting to 54 mph.
By [Name] [Date]

The weather was challenging today as strong winds continued from the north. The gusts were particularly strong in the afternoon.

Who patronizes Memorial Library?
Page 4A
By [Name] [Date]

The Memorial Library is a community hub, serving a diverse group of patrons. The library offers a wide range of services and programs.

Children's Art Day coming
By [Name] [Date]

The annual Children's Art Day is just around the corner. It's a wonderful opportunity for kids to express their creativity.

LEADER & TIMES
Your daily news & views for 127 years
WEDNESDAY MARCH 19, 2014

Mayor Harrison endorses school bond
By [Name] [Date]

Mayor Harrison has endorsed the proposed school bond, which will fund the construction of new classrooms and facilities. The bond is a critical step towards improving our schools.

White House backs off surgeon general nominee amid Democrats' resistance
By [Name] [Date]

The White House has backed off its nomination of a surgeon general, following strong resistance from Democrats. The move is seen as a concession to the opposition.

Kiener Public Library Foundation to host benefit dinner
By [Name] [Date]

The Kiener Public Library Foundation is hosting a benefit dinner to raise funds for the library's operations. The event is a community affair that brings together supporters of the library.

Do First World nations consider leaving? European leaders warn that they...
By [Name] [Date]

European leaders are warning that First World nations should consider leaving if they do not support the current economic policies. The message is clear: there is no room for complacency.