

The colder the x-ray tube, the more of your body is required on it!
Thursday Edition 2014
A Village Press Librett, 25 E. 63rd Street, 10022 • Monday - Saturday
10:00 AM - 10:00 PM • 718-335-1111 • www.villagepress.com

Election begins
Check's office mails first advance ballot today
By [Name] [Address]

The polls opened for a day of voting today as the Village Press mailed out the first advance ballots to voters. The office of the Village Press, which handles the election process, said that the first ballots were mailed out today.

Relentless winds
Tuesday's winds reached 44 mph rate of the northwest, gusting to 54 mph.
By [Name] [Address]

The winds were relentless today, with gusts reaching 54 mph. The weather was a mix of sun and clouds, but the wind was the main focus.

Who patronizes Memorial Library?
Page 4A
By [Name] [Address]

The Memorial Library is a popular spot for many people. It offers a wide range of books and services to the community.

Children's Art Day coming
By [Name] [Address]

Children's Art Day is coming soon. It's a great opportunity for kids to express their creativity and learn about art.

LEADER & TIMES
WEDNESDAY MARCH 19, 2014
Your daily news & views for 127 years

Mayor Harrison endorses school bond
By [Name] [Address]

Mayor Harrison has endorsed the school bond. He believes it will help improve the school system and provide better education for all students.

White House backs off surgeon general nominee amid Democrats' resistance
By [Name] [Address]

The White House has backed off its nominee for surgeon general. Democrats have expressed strong resistance to the appointment.

Kiener Public Library Foundation to host benefit dinner
By [Name] [Address]

The Kiener Public Library Foundation is hosting a benefit dinner. The event will raise funds to support the library's operations and programs.

Do First Energy assess gas safety
By [Name] [Address]

First Energy is assessing gas safety in the area. The company is conducting inspections to ensure that all gas lines are safe and secure.