

CELEB LEGS ALL WEDNESDAY THE FUNNY
LAUNCH $5.99 DIFFERENT KINDS OF MEAT
Sundays - Cris Letts Of The 80's • Mondays - Cris Letts Of The 80's
Krebs, March 15, 5.99 - 9.99 • Krebs 8.99 only 8.99 • www.dailymediantimes.com

TASTE of CHINA
LUNCH $5.99
LATE FEBRUARY - EARLY MARCH

Wanting a Chella Brow makeover?
Page 2A

A different kind of pope?
Page 9

Kansas woman, 91, resists developer
LAWRENCE, Kan. — A 91-year-old Lawrence woman is resisting a developer's plan to build a new apartment complex on the site of her home. The woman, who has lived in the home for over 60 years, says she does not want to be displaced. The developer says the project is needed to address the city's housing shortage. The case is being heard in court.

Police seeking toe sucker
LAWRENCE, Kan. — Police are seeking a man who is suspected of being a "toe sucker" in Lawrence. The man is described as being in his late 20s or early 30s, with short dark hair and a mustache. He is wearing a dark jacket and light-colored pants. He was last seen in the area of the city on March 18.

Army fugitive back in Kan. prison after 37 years
LAWRENCE, Kan. — A man who was in the Lawrence prison for 37 years after being convicted of a crime in 1977 has been released. The man, whose name is not being disclosed, was released on parole. He is now living in Lawrence. The prison officials say the man was a model inmate and was released after serving his full term.

Kansas committee changes records bill
PHAROSVILLE, Kan. — The Kansas State Board of Education has approved changes to a bill that would require the state to maintain records of the names and addresses of all students in the state. The board says the changes are necessary to protect the privacy of students and their families. The bill is expected to be passed by the legislature.

Police: Likely link to Calif. rampage, Ore. death
LAWRENCE, Kan. — Police are investigating a possible link between a shooting in California and a death in Oregon. The shooting in California occurred on March 15, and the death in Oregon occurred on March 18. Police say they are looking for a suspect who is believed to be involved in both incidents. The suspect is described as being in his late 20s or early 30s, with short dark hair and a mustache. He is wearing a dark jacket and light-colored pants. He was last seen in the area of the city on March 18.