

CELEBRATE ALL WEEKEND FRIDAY SUNDAY
TASTE OF CHINA LAUNCHES $5.99 DIFFERENT KIND OF POPE
Lunch - Cris Lett Of The Day $5.99 • Wednesday - Cris Lett $5.99
Kitch. Lunch 11.5 - 3.5 P.M. • Kitch. 8.9 only 8.9.04 www.dailymediantimes.com 213-252-2020

Wanting a Chella Brow makeover?
Page 2A

A different kind of pope?
Page 8-9

Kansas woman, 91, resists developer
LINDSEY COE - A Kansas woman who has spent her life in the state capital is resisting a developer's plan to build a new apartment complex on the site of her home. The woman, who is 91 years old, has lived in the same house for over 60 years. She has a long history of activism and has been involved in many community projects. She is currently being evicted from her home by a developer who wants to build a new apartment complex on the site. She is fighting the eviction and has filed a lawsuit against the developer. She is being supported by a group of volunteers who are helping her with legal fees and other expenses. She is determined to stay in her home and is not giving up.

Police seeking toe sucker
PHOTOGRAPH BY JEFFREY M. HARRIS FOR THE KANSAS CITY STAR
A police officer is looking for a man who has been seen in the area of a recent crime. The man is described as being white, in his late 20s or early 30s, and wearing a dark jacket and light-colored pants. He was seen running away from the scene of the crime. The police are asking anyone who has seen him to call the police at 311-1234.

Police: Likely link to Calif. rampage, Ore. death
PHOTOGRAPH BY JEFFREY M. HARRIS FOR THE KANSAS CITY STAR
A police officer is looking for a man who has been seen in the area of a recent crime. The man is described as being white, in his late 20s or early 30s, and wearing a dark jacket and light-colored pants. He was seen running away from the scene of the crime. The police are asking anyone who has seen him to call the police at 311-1234.

Army fugitive back in Kan. prison after 37 years
PHOTOGRAPH BY JEFFREY M. HARRIS FOR THE KANSAS CITY STAR
A man who was in the army for 37 years has been sent back to prison in Kansas. He was arrested after being found in a remote area of the state. He is being held in a maximum security prison. He is being held in a maximum security prison. He is being held in a maximum security prison.

Kansas committee changes records bill
PHOTOGRAPH BY JEFFREY M. HARRIS FOR THE KANSAS CITY STAR
A committee in Kansas has changed a bill that would change records. The bill would require that records be kept for a certain amount of time. The committee has decided to change the bill to require that records be kept for a longer amount of time. This change is being made to ensure that records are kept for a longer period of time.

Friday Leader & Times
Big day for basketball in Kansas
Page 11

Police: Likely link to Calif. rampage, Ore. death
PHOTOGRAPH BY JEFFREY M. HARRIS FOR THE KANSAS CITY STAR
A police officer is looking for a man who has been seen in the area of a recent crime. The man is described as being white, in his late 20s or early 30s, and wearing a dark jacket and light-colored pants. He was seen running away from the scene of the crime. The police are asking anyone who has seen him to call the police at 311-1234.