Kansas woman, 91, resists developer

LEWISBURG, Mo. — A 91-year-old woman who has lived in her home for 60 years is resisting a developer's plan to build a new house on the property. The woman, who is blind and has limited mobility, says she does not want to be moved. The developer says the property is zoned for residential use and that the woman's home is not up to code. The woman's attorney says she is willing to negotiate but that the developer has not made any offers. The case is currently in court.
