

The journey of a thousand miles begins with a broken fan belt and a flat tire.
Come March many sports centers with friends, family, and friends. Many will be on their way to the airport to start a new season.

Budget, recruiting, insurance on tonight's school board agenda

The agenda for the School Board meeting tonight includes the annual budget, recruiting, and insurance. The board will also discuss the school's performance and the upcoming school year.

German customs seizes cocaine addressed to Vatican

German customs officials have seized a large amount of cocaine in a package addressed to the Vatican. The package was found in a container at the airport.

Liberal receives snow in last week of March - again

A Liberal received a significant amount of snow in the last week of March, which is unusual for the region. The snow was reported to be heavy and lasted for several days.

Work continues on Kansas school funding measure

Work continues on the Kansas school funding measure, which aims to provide more equitable funding for all schools in the state. The measure is expected to pass in the coming weeks.

Gun control measures met with defiance from law enforcement officers

New gun control measures have been met with defiance from law enforcement officers in some areas. The officers are concerned about the impact of the measures on public safety.

Incentives to help housing expansion in Dodge City

The city of Dodge City is offering incentives to help with housing expansion. These incentives include tax breaks and grants for developers who build affordable housing units.

Kansas residents brace for flood insurance changes

Kansas residents are bracing for changes in flood insurance policies. The changes are expected to affect the cost and availability of flood insurance for many areas.

Gun control measures met with defiance from law enforcement officers

Law enforcement officers in Kansas are expressing their concerns about the proposed gun control measures. They believe that these measures will hinder their ability to protect the community.

Incentives to help housing expansion in Dodge City

Local government officials in Dodge City are discussing the potential benefits of housing expansion incentives. They believe that these incentives will attract investment and create jobs.

Kansas residents are bracing for changes in flood insurance policies. The changes are expected to affect the cost and availability of flood insurance for many areas.

Law enforcement officers in Kansas are expressing their concerns about the proposed gun control measures. They believe that these measures will hinder their ability to protect the community.

Local government officials in Dodge City are discussing the potential benefits of housing expansion incentives. They believe that these incentives will attract investment and create jobs.