

For Sale: Parachute. Only used once, never opened, small state.
Slow Growth! Home of the BIG WOODY!
Village Plaza & Liberty, K.S. 820-426-4600 Monday - Saturday
10000 sq ft with 1000 sq ft of office space in a 10000 sq ft building

LHS to offer summer driver's ed
Page 3A

Book Fair challenges fourth-graders
Event in reading, writing, drawing & thinking
The book fair, which is open to all students in the district, will be held from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. on Thursday, March 27, at the LHS library. The fair will feature a variety of books, including fiction, non-fiction, and picture books. Students will be challenged to read a book, write a story, draw a picture, and think about the book. The fair will be a fun and educational event for all students.

Commissioners to file official complaint against Ron Warren
The commissioners of the Kansas State Board of Education filed an official complaint against Ron Warren, the state superintendent of education, on Wednesday, March 26, 2014. The complaint alleges that Warren violated the board's rules and regulations regarding the state superintendent's duties and responsibilities. The board will hold a public hearing on the complaint on Thursday, March 27, 2014, at 10:00 a.m. in the board's hearing room at the State Capitol building in Topeka, Kansas.

City facing insurance increase
The City of Topeka is facing a significant increase in its insurance costs for the upcoming year. The city's insurance carrier has notified the city that the rates for general liability, property, and auto insurance will increase by approximately 15-20% over the current year. The city is currently reviewing the increase and exploring options to mitigate the cost. The city's budget committee will meet on Thursday, March 27, 2014, to discuss the insurance increase and its impact on the city's budget.

THURSDAY MARCH 27, 2014
LEADER & TIMES
Year daily news & news for 127 years

Still undecided? Get the facts today at public meeting
The Kansas State Board of Education is holding a public meeting on Thursday, March 27, 2014, at 10:00 a.m. in the board's hearing room at the State Capitol building in Topeka, Kansas. The meeting is open to the public and will discuss the board's rules and regulations regarding the state superintendent's duties and responsibilities. The board is currently reviewing a complaint against Ron Warren, the state superintendent of education, and will hold a public hearing on the complaint during the meeting.

Kansas family's $25G probe pins fruitless SWAT team raid on science project or tea
A Kansas family's $25G probe pins fruitless SWAT team raid on science project or tea. The family, who live in Topeka, Kansas, filed a lawsuit against the Topeka Police Department and the Topeka SWAT team on Wednesday, March 26, 2014. The lawsuit alleges that the police and SWAT team conducted an unprovoked raid on the family's home on Thursday, March 20, 2014, at 10:00 p.m. The police and SWAT team searched the home for a science project or tea, but found nothing. The family is seeking damages and an apology from the police and SWAT team.

Minnesota teen wins settlement after school takes Facebook password
A Minnesota teen has won a settlement after her school took her Facebook password. The teen, who is 17 years old, filed a lawsuit against her school on Wednesday, March 26, 2014. The lawsuit alleges that the school took her Facebook password without her consent and used it to access her private information. The school is seeking a settlement of $10,000 from the teen.

Church of Nazarene to present Gospel Hymn Sing Sunday
The Church of Nazarene is presenting a Gospel Hymn Sing on Sunday, March 30, 2014, at 10:00 a.m. in the church's sanctuary. The sing will feature a variety of gospel hymns and songs. The church is located at 1000 North Lincoln Street in Topeka, Kansas.

Ex-KBI official pleads to exploitation
A former Kansas Bureau of Investigation (KBI) official has pleaded guilty to exploitation. The official, who worked for the KBI for 15 years, was charged with exploiting his position to obtain confidential information and use it for his own benefit. The official is currently on bond and will appear in court on Thursday, March 27, 2014.