Kansas man accused in guitar string decapitation

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — A Topeka man was accused Monday of decapitating a guitar string with a knife. The man, 34, was charged with first-degree murder after the string was found in a trash can at a friend's house. The man is being held in jail on $100,000 bail.

Deadline brings high interest for health insurance

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — Health insurance companies are seeing a surge in interest as the deadline for enrolling in plans for the next year approaches. Many people are looking for ways to save money on their premiums, and some are considering switching to a different plan. The deadline is typically in March or April, and companies are offering various incentives to attract new customers.

Firefighter rescues 6-foot python from blaze

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — A firefighter rescued a 6-foot python from a house on fire Monday. The snake was found in a room that was filled with smoke and flames. The firefighter used a hook to reach the snake and safely removed it from the house. The snake was taken to a local reptile store for care.

Kan. Senate to debate bill voiding local gun rules

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — The Kansas Senate is set to debate a bill that would void local gun control rules. The bill, known as SB 100, would allow gun owners to carry concealed weapons in public places, regardless of local ordinances. The bill is expected to pass in the coming weeks.
