The City of Coronado and the Board of Education will meet today to discuss a proposed sales tax agreement with the school district. The agreement would allow the city to collect a 1.5 percent sales tax on all goods and services sold in the city. The tax would be used to fund the school district's operations. The agreement is expected to be approved by the city council and the school board in the coming weeks.

Giving blood, Giving life
By Jeff Wynn

It's the blood that keeps us going. The life that sustains us. The life that gives us the strength to face the world. It's the life that we give to others. It's the life that we receive. It's the life that we share. It's the life that we live. It's the life that we love. It's the life that we cherish. It's the life that we protect. It's the life that we defend. It's the life that we honor. It's the life that we respect. It's the life that we value. It's the life that we treasure. It's the life that we prize. It's the life that we cherish. It's the life that we love. It's the life that we cherish. It's the life that we love.
