

MEMBERS at the Yellow Brick Road Car Show
MEMBER WITH A MESSY HAIR
MEMBER WITH A MESSY HAIR

4-H Shooting Sports Club hosts BB Gun Shootout
Page 9 DA

NEW EXHIBIT COMING to Coronado Museum
Page 3A

ATM spits out $37,000
Page 10A

2-legged dog charms millions
Page 8A

SUNDAY APRIL 6, 2014
LEADER & TIMES
Your daily news & views for 127 years

BONUS SECTION
Take the first look at a special five-week series of Progress being made on the plains. INSIDE

School, city to approve sales tax agreement today
By Jeff Knapp

The City of Coronado (population 4,000) and the School District of Coronado (population 4,000) are set to approve a sales tax agreement today. The agreement gives the city the authority to raise the sales tax from 2.5 percent to 3.5 percent. The school district will receive an additional $1 million per year from the city. The agreement also allows the city to use the additional revenue for a variety of purposes, including the construction of a new school building. The agreement is expected to be approved by the city council and the school board today.

Giving blood, Giving life
By Jeff Knapp

At the Coronado Community Center, a group of people are gathered around a table, donating blood. A nurse in a white coat is talking to them. The room is filled with people of various ages, some sitting in chairs and others standing. The atmosphere is calm and helpful. The center is a popular spot for blood donors in the area. The center is open every week and is a great place to get your blood checked. The center is also a great place to get information about blood donation. The center is a great place to get your blood checked and to help others in need.

ADAMS Paul
Paul Adams is a local artist who has been painting for many years. He has a unique style and has been featured in several art shows. He is currently working on a new piece and is looking for feedback from the community. He is a member of the local art community and is always looking for new ways to improve his work. He is a great person to talk to if you are interested in art.

JEFF Knapp
Jeff Knapp is a local journalist who has been writing for many years. He has a passion for reporting on the community and is always looking for new stories to tell. He is a member of the local journalism community and is always looking for new ways to improve his work. He is a great person to talk to if you are interested in journalism.