School, city to approve sales tax agreement today
By Jeff Wynn

The City of Coronado and the Board of Education will meet today to discuss a proposed sales tax agreement with the school district. The agreement would allow the city to collect a 1.5 percent sales tax on all goods and services sold in the city. The tax would be used to fund the school district's operations. The agreement is expected to be approved by the city council and the school board in the coming weeks.

Giving blood, Giving life
By Jeff Wynn

It's the blood that saves lives. The Red Cross is currently accepting donations of blood for a variety of medical procedures. The blood is used for a wide range of medical purposes, including heart and lung transplants, cancer treatments, and organ transplants.
