School, city to approve sales tax agreement today
By Jeff Smith

The City of Liberal (population 10,000) and the Liberal School District (population 10,000) are set to approve a sales tax agreement today. The agreement gives the city and school district a 1.5 percent sales tax for five years. The agreement also provides for a 0.5 percent sales tax for the next five years. The agreement is expected to generate $1.5 million in additional revenue for the city and school district. The agreement is expected to be approved by the city council and school board today.

Giving blood, Giving life
By Jeff Smith

Liberal residents are giving blood at the Liberal Blood Center today. The center is a non-profit organization that provides blood to the community. The center is located at 1001 W. 10th St. in Liberal. The center is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. today. The center is accepting donations from all ages and ethnicities.
