School, city to approve sales tax agreement today
By Jeff Knapp

The City of Coronado and the Board of Education will meet at 10:30 a.m. today to discuss a proposed sales tax agreement with the school district. The agreement would allow the city to collect a 1.5 percent sales tax on all goods and services sold in the city. The tax would be used to fund the school district's operations. The agreement would also allow the city to collect a 1.5 percent sales tax on all goods and services sold in the city. The tax would be used to fund the school district's operations.

Giving blood, Giving life
