

MEETINGS at the Yellow Brick Road Car Show
WEDNESDAY APRIL 23, 6:00 PM
Village Plaza • LIBERTY, MO
FREE • 660-252-8282

work
PROGRESS

Deputy elections clerk leaving Liberal
BY JEFFREY HARRIS
Candi Clark, deputy clerk of the Board of Election Commissioners in Liberty, Mo., will be leaving her job to work for the Missouri Department of Transportation in St. Louis. Clark has worked for the board since 2007 and will be replaced by Jennifer Smith, who will start in May.

Landmark tribute
Local artist honors company's leaders
Page 2A

Deputy elections clerk leaving Liberal
BY JEFFREY HARRIS
Candi Clark, deputy clerk of the Board of Election Commissioners in Liberty, Mo., will be leaving her job to work for the Missouri Department of Transportation in St. Louis. Clark has worked for the board since 2007 and will be replaced by Jennifer Smith, who will start in May.

More and more students taking classes ONLINE
Page 4A

LEADER & TIMES
SUNDAY APRIL 20, 2014
Your daily news & views for 12¢

Kids scurry for prize Easter eggs Friday
A young girl searches for prize Easter eggs in a field on Friday, April 18, 2014. The eggs are hidden in the grass and are filled with candy.

Carrying the Cross for Christ
A group of people in a parade carry a large wooden cross on their shoulders. The cross is made of wood and is about 10 feet high. The people are dressed in casual clothing and are walking on a paved street.

Delay won't quell 2014 wrangling over Keystone XL
WASHINGTON — Despite mounting evidence that the Keystone XL pipeline will not be built, the federal government is expected to announce a decision on whether to approve the project this week. The decision is expected to be a final one, and it will determine whether the pipeline is built or not.