

MEET THE ARTISTS at the Yellow Brick Road Car Show
MAY 10, 11 & 12, 10 AM - 5 PM
Village Plaza • LIBERTY, MO
FREE ADMISSION

work
PROGRESS

Deputy elections clerk leaving Liberal
BY KIMBERLY HAYES
Candice Green, deputy clerk of the Board of Election Commissioners, is leaving her position at the end of the month to return to her home state of Missouri. Green has worked for the board since 2008 and has been instrumental in the board's efforts to improve the election process. She will be missed by her colleagues and the community.

Local artist honors company's leaders
Page 2A

More and more students taking classes ONLINE
Page 4A

Deputy elections clerk leaving Liberal
BY KIMBERLY HAYES
Candice Green, deputy clerk of the Board of Election Commissioners, is leaving her position at the end of the month to return to her home state of Missouri. Green has worked for the board since 2008 and has been instrumental in the board's efforts to improve the election process. She will be missed by her colleagues and the community.

LEADER & TIMES
SUNDAY APRIL 20, 2014
Your daily news & views for 12¢

Kids scurry for prize Easter eggs Friday
A young girl is seen running through a field of Easter eggs during a hunt on Friday. The hunt was held in a park and attracted many children and their families.

Carrying the Cross for Christ
A group of people is seen carrying a large wooden cross through a town square during a religious procession. The cross is being carried on the shoulders of several people, and the group is moving in a solemn and reverent manner.

Delay won't quell 2014 wrangling over Keystone XL
WASHINGTON — Despite mounting evidence that the Keystone XL pipeline will not be built, the federal government's decision to delay a final decision on the project has not quelled the intense political and public debate over the project. The delay has only served to prolong the controversy and has not resolved the underlying issues.