

There are 3 kinds of people: those who can count & those who can't.
Come to Wichita Amateur Sports Center, with Wings, 9 Sports Nights and more than 100 vendors on April 21-22 at 1000 S. Broadway.

On the hunt at Arvdon Park
A group of about 100 hunters gathered at Arvdon Park in Topeka on Sunday for a day of turkey hunting. The hunters were looking for wild turkeys in the area. The hunt was successful, with several turkeys being taken.

Helm complaints continue
Interlocal agreement meeting target of Helm's rage
A meeting of about 100 city council members and other officials gathered at the city council chamber on Monday to discuss the city's financial situation. The meeting was held in response to a letter from the state auditor general, which criticized the city's financial management. The city council members expressed their frustration with the state's actions and their determination to address the city's financial issues.

How did Rosel Field get its name?
The name of Rosel Field, a baseball field in Topeka, has a long and interesting history. The field was named in honor of a local businessman, Rosel, who had a significant impact on the community. The story of how the field got its name is a fascinating one, and it is worth exploring.

Time is running out
Can you beat on the grounds like the pioneers? If so, turn in your entry and tell us why you think you can be the Ultimate Pioneer.
The Pioneer Days festival is a celebration of the city's pioneer heritage. One of the highlights of the festival is the Pioneer Days race, where participants compete on the grounds. The race is a fun and challenging event, and it is a great way to experience the city's history.

Miss America: Don't suspend teen over prom invite
The Miss America organization has announced that it will not suspend a teen who was invited to the prom. The organization has decided to support the teen and her family, and to continue to promote the values of the organization.

Pay raise on agenda
The city council is considering a pay raise for city employees. The raise is a result of a long and difficult process, and it is a sign of the city's commitment to its employees.

LEADER & TIMES
Your daily news & more for 127 years

2-car crash near Topeka results in shooting
A two-car crash near Topeka resulted in a shooting. The crash occurred on a busy highway, and the driver of one of the cars was shot. The incident is being investigated by law enforcement.

Wichita compiling amateur World Series board
The city of Wichita is compiling a board for the amateur World Series. The board will be used to promote the city and to attract visitors to the city.

Kansas school funding measure awaits signature
A measure to increase school funding in Kansas is awaiting the governor's signature. The measure is a significant step towards improving the state's education system.

Going 'green' for prom
(John Deere Green)
A group of students is promoting environmental awareness at the prom. They are using John Deere Green equipment and materials to create a sustainable event.