

There are 3 kinds of people: those who can count & those who can't.
Come to Wichita Amateur Sports Champs with Wings, @ Sports Nights and see how many more people can count on it! Wichita Amateur Sports Champs with Wings

On the hunt at Arvado Park
A group of about 100-150 hunters gathered at Arvado Park in Topeka for a day of hunting. The hunters were looking for deer and other game. The day was successful for many of the hunters, and they were able to bring home some of their catch.

How did Rosel Field get its name?
The story behind the name of Rosel Field is a bit of a mystery. Some believe it was named after a local farmer, while others think it was named after a prominent figure in the community. The field has a long history and is a popular spot for sports events.

Time is running out
Can you beat on the grounds like the pioneers? If so, turn in your entry and tell us why you think you can be the Ultimate Pioneer.

Miss America: Don't suspend teen over prom invite
The Miss America organization is facing a controversy over a decision to suspend a teen who was invited to the prom. The organization is being criticized for its handling of the situation, and many are calling for a more lenient approach.

Pay raise on agenda
The school board is considering a pay raise for its members. The raise is being proposed as a way to attract and retain qualified individuals to the board. The board members are responsible for making important decisions about the school district.

LEADER & TIMES
Your daily news & more for 127 years

2-car crash near Topeka results in shooting
A two-car crash near Topeka resulted in a shooting. The crash occurred on a busy road, and the vehicles involved were heavily damaged. The shooting was a tragic incident, and the police are investigating the circumstances.

Wichita compiling amateur World Series board
The city of Wichita is compiling a board for an amateur World Series. The board will consist of representatives from various amateur sports organizations. The goal is to create a premier event for amateur athletes in the region.

Kansas school funding measure awaits signature
A new funding measure for Kansas schools is awaiting the governor's signature. The measure is designed to provide additional funding for schools across the state. It is a significant step towards addressing the needs of our students.

Going 'green' for prom
A group of students is promoting environmental awareness at the prom. They are using recycled materials for decorations and encouraging everyone to go green. It's a great way to celebrate while making a positive impact.