

What's the speed of dark?
Thursday Prime Fix
A 4-page Prime Fix is online at 4:30 p.m. Eastern. Monday's delivery will be a 4-page Prime Fix. For more information, visit www.kentucky.com.

Rep. Petty won't seek re-election this fall
By Tom Ichniowski
Rep. Tim Petty, D-Boone County, will not seek re-election in the 2014 fall session, according to a source familiar with the matter. Petty, who has served in the House since 2008, is expected to leave office in November. He has not yet announced his plans for the future.

City may sell half-town parking lot
By Tom Ichniowski
The City of Paducah is considering selling a portion of its half-town parking lot to a private developer. The lot, located on the east side of town, is currently used for parking and is in poor condition. The city is looking for a buyer who would improve the lot and use it for other purposes.

Cobin honors grads
By Tom Ichniowski
The John A. Logan College of Small Business Administration honored its graduates at a ceremony held at the college's main campus. The ceremony was held on Monday, April 21, and featured a presentation of diplomas to the graduates. The graduates will be working in various fields, including business, education, and healthcare.

Severe weather awareness presentation
By Tom Ichniowski
The Paducah Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a severe weather awareness presentation. The presentation will be held on Thursday, April 24, at 7 p.m. at the Kiwanis Community Pavilion. The presentation will discuss the dangers of severe weather and how to stay safe during a storm.

Still 'no' votes
Helm, Sutherland-Abbott continue crusade against bond despite overwhelming public vote of approval
Page 3B

Brownback signs Kansas school funding bill
The Kansas Supreme Court is expected to review the funding issue. The bill, which was signed by Governor Brownback, would provide additional funding for schools in low-income areas. The Supreme Court is expected to hear arguments on the bill in the coming months.

Girl who died of abuse could have been rescued
By Tom Ichniowski
A girl who died of abuse could have been rescued if her mother had been taken into custody. The girl, who was 10 years old at the time of her death, was found dead in her home. Her mother had a history of domestic violence and was known to be violent towards her daughter. The girl's death was a tragedy that could have been prevented if the authorities had taken action against her mother.

Photo gallery: Paducah Chamber of Commerce sponsors severe weather awareness presentation
A photo gallery showing the severe weather awareness presentation held at the Kiwanis Community Pavilion. The presentation featured a slide show, a video, and a Q&A session with a meteorologist. The presentation was well-attended and provided valuable information to the community.