

What's the speed of dark?
Thursday Prime Fix
A 4-page Prime Fix is below, KSTV 3.25-4:25 PM. Monday: Saturday: 9:00-10:00 PM. KSTV 3.25-4:25 PM. Monday: Saturday: 9:00-10:00 PM.

Rep. Petty won't seek re-election this fall
By Dan M. Kelly
Rep. James Petty announced today that he will not seek re-election in 2014. Petty, who has served in the House since 2006, said he plans to spend the next few years with his family and in the private sector. Petty is currently serving in the 10th district, which includes parts of Johnson County and the city of Overland Park. Petty's term ends in November 2014. He is being succeeded by Rep. Tommie Williams.

City may sell half-town parking lot
By Dan M. Kelly
The City of Overland Park is considering selling a portion of its half-town parking lot. The city is looking for a private developer to purchase the lot, which is currently used for parking. The lot is located on the east side of the city and is adjacent to a residential area. The city is currently in the process of soliciting proposals for the lot. The sale of the lot is expected to generate revenue for the city and to provide a new parking facility for the area.

Cobin honors grads
By Dan M. Kelly
The Overland Park Community Center and School of Leadership Studies held a graduation ceremony for its students. The ceremony was held at the center and was attended by family members and friends of the graduates. The graduates were recognized for their hard work and dedication to their studies. The ceremony was a special occasion for the center and its students.

Severe weather awareness presentation
By Dan M. Kelly
The Overland Park Community Center and School of Leadership Studies held a presentation on severe weather awareness. The presentation was held at the center and was attended by community members. The presentation focused on the dangers of severe weather and how to stay safe during such events. The presentation was a valuable resource for the community and helped to raise awareness of the risks of severe weather.

Still 'no' votes
Helm, Sutherland-Abbott continue crusade against bond despite overwhelming public vote of approval
Page 3B

Brownback signs Kansas school funding bill
The Kansas Supreme Court is reviewing the funding issue. The bill is expected to be signed into law by Governor Brownback. The bill will provide funding for schools across the state and is expected to have a positive impact on the education system. The bill is a significant step towards addressing the funding issue and ensuring that all students have access to a quality education.

Girl who died of abuse could have been rescued
A girl who died of abuse could have been rescued if her mother had been more attentive to her needs. The girl's mother was accused of neglecting her daughter and allowing her to be abused. The girl's death was a tragedy and a wake-up call for parents to be more involved in their children's lives. The case highlights the importance of recognizing signs of abuse and seeking help when needed.

