

Wash. police chief's dog brings home human skull
A dog belonging to the chief of the Washington State Police has brought home a human skull from a crime scene, police say.

Arbor Day planting
A group of volunteers is participating in an Arbor Day planting project in the city of Topeka.

County GOP meeting to find Reid's replacement
The Republican Party in Douglas County is holding a meeting to select a replacement for the retiring U.S. Representative.

College presents spring concert
The University of Kansas at Lawrence is presenting a spring concert featuring local musicians.

Board members aim for more positive relationships
The board of directors of the Douglas County Farmers Market is working to improve relationships with the community.

LEADER & TIMES
THURSDAY APRIL 24, 2014
Your daily news & views for 127 years

Government Days
A series of events celebrating the 100th anniversary of the founding of the United States.

Douglas County OKs program for farmers market
The Douglas County Board of Commissioners has approved a program to support the local farmers market.

Kansas Sampler Festival celebrating 25 years
The Kansas Sampler Festival is celebrating its 25th anniversary with a special event in Wamego.

Topeka man pleads guilty to 2013 homicide
A man from Topeka has pleaded guilty to a homicide that occurred in 2013.

Oklahoma court rejects death-row inmates' claims
The Oklahoma Supreme Court has rejected the claims of death-row inmates.