

Wash. police chief's dog brings home human skull
A dog belonging to the chief of police in Washington, D.C., brought home a human skull from a park in the city. The dog, named "Buddy," was walking with the chief when he found the skull. The police department is currently investigating the case.

Arbor Day planting
A group of volunteers is participating in an Arbor Day planting event. They are planting trees in a park area. The event is being organized by the local government.

County GOP meeting to find Reid's replacement
The local Republican Party is holding a meeting to select a replacement for a member of the legislature. The meeting will be held in a community center.

College presents spring concert
A local college is presenting a spring concert. The concert will feature a variety of musical acts and will be held in an outdoor venue.

Board members aim for more positive relationships
A board of directors is aiming to improve its relationships with the community. The board members are planning to hold more public meetings and listen to the concerns of the community.

Government Days
A series of events is being held to celebrate Government Days. The events will include a parade, a festival, and a concert.

Kansas Sampler Festival celebrating 25 years
The Kansas Sampler Festival is celebrating its 25th anniversary. The festival will feature a variety of musical acts and will be held in a park area.

Douglas County OKs program for farmers market
Douglas County has approved a program for a farmers market. The market will be held in a park area and will feature a variety of fresh produce.

Topeka man pleads guilty to 2013 homicide
A man from Topeka has pleaded guilty to a homicide in 2013. The man is facing charges of first-degree murder.

Oklahoma court rejects death-row inmates' claims
An Oklahoma court has rejected the claims of death-row inmates. The court ruled that the inmates' claims were not valid.