

WELCOME to the Yellow Brick Road Car Show

APRIL 27 & 28, 2014
Village of Piquette, LIBERTY, MO.
1000 S. GARDNER ST. PIQUETTE, MO. 64081

---

Gomez-Fornwalt files for county commission seat

By Kelli G. Smith
Gomez-Fornwalt filed for the seat on Tuesday.

Building Bridges
The Yellow Brick Road Car Show is a family-friendly event that will feature a variety of classic and exotic cars. The show is held on the grounds of the Village of Piquette, a beautiful setting with a large parking area and a scenic view of the Yellow Brick Road. The show is open to the public and is a great opportunity to see some of the most beautiful cars in the world.

Deuce Jays

Deuce Jays is a national club coming to the Yellow Brick Road Car Show. The club is a group of car enthusiasts who are passionate about classic cars and who enjoy sharing their knowledge and passion with others. They will be at the show to display their cars and to talk to anyone who is interested in classic cars.

Sweets 'n Tea

Join us for a Sweets 'n Tea at 4 p.m. on Saturday, April 27, at the Piquette Village. The event is a social gathering for car enthusiasts and their families. There will be refreshments and a chance to talk to the car show organizers.

---

LEADER & TIMES

APRIL 27, 2014
Your daily news & news for 127 years

How are Liberal's teachers handling Common Core?

Page 5A

LHS honors academics

Page 5B

---

Contest winners read to capacity crowd at Poetry Coffee House

By Kelli G. Smith
The winners of the poetry contest read their poems to a capacity crowd at the Poetry Coffee House.

The winners of the poetry contest read their poems to a capacity crowd at the Poetry Coffee House. The event was held at the Poetry Coffee House, a popular spot for poetry readings and other literary events. The winners were praised for their creativity and skill in writing poetry.

---

AG Schmidt asks for partial dismissal of Kansas schools lawsuit

By Kelli G. Smith
The Attorney General has asked the court to partially dismiss the lawsuit against the state of Kansas.

The Attorney General has asked the court to partially dismiss the lawsuit against the state of Kansas. The lawsuit was filed by a group of parents who claimed that the state's education system was unconstitutional. The Attorney General argued that the lawsuit was not properly filed and should be dismissed.