Senators call for VA secretary's resignation

Senators on Tuesday called for the resignation of the Veterans Affairs secretary, Robert Wilkie, over his handling of the VA's budget and the agency's performance. The senators said that Wilkie's actions have led to a significant increase in the VA's budget and a decline in the agency's performance. They said that Wilkie's actions have also led to a significant increase in the VA's debt and a decline in the agency's performance.

Pilot crashes into former home north of Denver

A small plane crashed into a former home north of Denver on Tuesday, killing the pilot and one passenger. The plane was flying at a low altitude when it crashed into the home. The pilot was killed on impact, and the passenger was killed by a fire that broke out after the crash. The home was a two-story brick building that had been built in the 1920s. The crash occurred on a residential street in the town of Littleton, Colorado.
