Maine woman, 80, goes skydiving on Mother's Day

WINDSOR, Maine (AP) — An 80-year-old woman from Windsor, Maine, became the oldest person to skydive on Mother's Day. She jumped out of a plane at 10,000 feet and spent 20 minutes in free fall before parachuting to the ground. The woman, named Mrs. M. J. (Mary) M. M. M., is a resident of Windsor, Maine. She was accompanied by her husband, Mr. M. J. M. M., and a group of friends.

Family tests Kan. water law, claims impairment

WINDSOR, Kan. (AP) — A family in Windsor, Kansas, is testing a new water law that allows landowners to sue neighboring landowners if their water is impaired. The family, the M. J. M. M. family, has filed a lawsuit against its neighbors, the M. J. M. M. family, claiming that their water is being impaired by the neighbors' water wells. The lawsuit is the first of its kind in Kansas.

Kansas considers revised permit for coal plant

WINDSOR, Kan. (AP) — The Kansas Department of Health Services is considering a revised permit for a coal-fired power plant in Windsor, Kansas. The plant, owned by the M. J. M. M. family, is located near the town of Windsor. The revised permit would allow the plant to emit more pollutants than the current permit allows.
