

You only see that the money is not the most important thing in life when you have it

Thursday Prime 910
K4 Village Plaza • 4th Floor, K4 • 910-426-9100 • K4.com/prime910

Woman wounded in early Sunday morning shooting

By KATIE HUGHES
Times Staff Writer

County sheriff's office officials said a woman was wounded in a shooting in the early morning hours of Sunday in Seward County. The woman, who was not identified, was shot in the back and was taken to a local hospital. The sheriff's office is currently investigating the shooting and has not yet released any details about the suspect or the victim.

Percent Receiving Food Stamps

Use of food stamps rises in Seward County Page 6A

Year	National	Kansas	Seward
2000	10.0	10.0	10.0
2001	10.5	10.5	10.5
2002	11.0	11.0	11.0
2003	11.5	11.5	11.5
2004	12.0	12.0	12.0
2005	12.5	12.5	12.5
2006	13.0	13.0	13.0
2007	13.5	13.5	13.5
2008	14.0	14.0	14.0
2009	14.5	14.5	14.5
2010	15.0	15.0	15.0
2011	15.5	15.5	15.5
2012	16.0	16.0	16.0
2013	16.5	16.5	16.5

Local authors donate to library

Page 2A

A group of local authors and writers have donated a collection of books to the Seward County Library. The collection includes a variety of genres, including fiction, non-fiction, and children's books. The library is grateful for the donation and will make the books available to the community.

Kansas mom pleads no contest in 6-year-old daughter's death

By KATIE HUGHES
Times Staff Writer

A Kansas mother has pleaded no contest to the death of her 6-year-old daughter. The mother, who was not identified, was charged with first-degree murder. She is currently facing charges in the death of her daughter, who died in 2008. The case is currently in court.

Seward County man dies in fire

By KATIE HUGHES
Times Staff Writer

A Seward County man died in a fire that broke out in his home. The fire started in the kitchen and spread to the rest of the house. The man, who was not identified, was found dead in the fire. The fire department is currently investigating the cause of the fire.

City to give up property for school expansion

By KATIE HUGHES
Times Staff Writer

The City of Seward is planning to give up property to the Seward County School District for a school expansion project. The property is located in the downtown area of Seward. The school district is planning to build a new school building on the property. The city is currently in the process of negotiating the terms of the agreement.

Geithner, in memoir, suggests White House asked him to bend truth on deficit

By KATIE HUGHES
Times Staff Writer

Robert Geithner, former director of the Federal Reserve, has written a memoir in which he suggests that the White House asked him to bend the truth on the deficit. Geithner, who served as director of the Federal Reserve from 2009 to 2013, is currently writing a memoir about his time in office. The memoir is expected to be published in the near future.

County to conduct special work session tonight

By KATIE HUGHES
Times Staff Writer

The Seward County Board of Commissioners is planning to hold a special work session tonight. The session will be held at the Seward County Courthouse. The board is currently in the process of negotiating the terms of the agreement with the school district. The session is expected to be a long one.

Feds mum on Kansas prairie chicken law

By KATIE HUGHES
Times Staff Writer

The federal government is currently in the process of reviewing a law that would protect the prairie chicken in Kansas. The law, which was passed by the Kansas legislature, would make it illegal to hunt or kill prairie chickens. The federal government is currently in the process of reviewing the law to determine if it is necessary to protect the prairie chicken.

Energy savings bill fails amid election politics

By KATIE HUGHES
Times Staff Writer

A bill that would have provided for energy savings in government buildings has failed in the House of Representatives. The bill, which was sponsored by a Republican, was defeated by a narrow margin. The failure of the bill is attributed to election politics and the need to focus on other issues.