

You only see that the money is not the most important thing in life when you have it.
Thursday Prime Rib
#4 Village Prime • 1 lb. Bone In, #2 • $22.95 (2014) • Available: Inventory
*Must be 21 or older and have a valid driver's license to make reservations. © 2014 KSNV-TV

Woman wounded in early Sunday morning shooting

By Sarah Hays
A woman was wounded in a shooting in Seward County on Sunday morning. The victim was taken to a hospital and is in stable condition. The police are currently investigating the incident.

Local authors donate to library

Page 2A
A group of local authors has donated books to the Seward County Library. The authors include several well-known names in the local literary community.

Kansas mom pleads no contest in 6-year-old daughter's death

A Kansas mother has pleaded no contest to the death of her 6-year-old daughter. The case has drawn significant attention in the community.

Seward County man dies in fire

A man from Seward County died in a fire that broke out in his home. The fire caused significant damage to the property.

City to give up property for school expansion

The city council has voted to give up certain city property to facilitate the expansion of a local school. This decision is part of a larger effort to improve educational facilities.

Coffee with a candidate:

A candidate for office is participating in a 'coffee with a candidate' event. The event provides an opportunity for voters to meet with the candidate and discuss their concerns.

Geithner, in memoir, suggests White House asked him to bend truth on deficit

In his memoir, former Treasury Secretary Timothy Geithner suggests that the White House asked him to bend the truth regarding the deficit. This revelation has caused a stir in Washington.

County to conduct special work session tonight

The Seward County Board of Commissioners will hold a special work session tonight. The session is expected to address several important issues.

Energy savings bill fails amid election politics

A bill aimed at promoting energy savings has failed to pass due to election politics. The bill was a key component of a larger legislative package.

Feds mum on Kansas prairie chicken law

The federal government has remained silent on a new law regarding the prairie chicken in Kansas. This has led to speculation about the federal stance on the issue.

Energy savings bill fails amid election politics

A bill aimed at promoting energy savings has failed to pass due to election politics. The bill was a key component of a larger legislative package.