

You only see that the money is not the most important thing in life when you have it.
Thursday Prime Rib
#4 Village Prime • 1 lb. Bone In, #2 • $22.95 • $29.95
#5 Village Prime • 1 lb. Bone In, #2 • $22.95 • $29.95

Woman wounded in early Sunday morning shooting

By Sarah Hays
A woman was wounded in a shooting in Seward County on Sunday morning. The woman, who was not identified, was shot in the back of the head and chest. She was taken to a hospital and is in stable condition. The police are currently investigating the shooting and have not yet identified any suspects.

Percent Receiving Food Stamps Use of food stamps rises in Seward County

Local authors donate to library

Page 2A
A group of local authors and librarians gathered at the Seward County Library to donate books to the collection. The authors, including several local writers, presented their books to the librarians, who will be adding them to the library's shelves. The event was a success and the library is grateful for the donations.

Kansas mom pleads no contest in 6-year-old daughter's death

By Sarah Hays
A Kansas mother has pleaded no contest to the death of her 6-year-old daughter. The mother, who was not identified, was charged with the death of her daughter. She is currently facing charges and is in custody. The case is currently in court.

Seward County man dies in fire

By Sarah Hays
A man from Seward County died in a fire that broke out in his home. The fire started in the kitchen and spread quickly, forcing the man to flee. He was taken to a hospital but succumbed to his injuries. The fire department is investigating the cause of the fire.

City to give up property for school expansion

By Sarah Hays
The city of Seward is planning to give up a piece of property to the school district for a new school building. The school district has requested the property for a new school building. The city is currently in the process of negotiating the terms of the agreement.

Coffee with a candidate:

By Sarah Hays
A candidate for the upcoming election is having coffee with a local group. The candidate, who was not identified, is meeting with the group to discuss their concerns and answer their questions. The meeting was held in a local cafe.

Geithner, in memoir, suggests White House asked him to bend truth on deficit

By Sarah Hays
Timothy Geithner, former director of the Federal Reserve, suggests in his memoir that the White House asked him to bend the truth on the deficit. Geithner, who served as the director of the Federal Reserve from 2009 to 2013, is currently writing a memoir about his time in office.

County to conduct special work session tonight

By Sarah Hays
Seward County is holding a special work session tonight. The session will be held at the county office and will focus on the county's budget and other important issues. The session is open to the public.

Feds mum on Kansas prairie chicken law

By Sarah Hays
The federal government is silent on a new law regarding the prairie chicken in Kansas. The law, which was passed by the state legislature, aims to protect the prairie chicken. The federal government is currently reviewing the law.

Energy savings bill fails amid election politics

By Sarah Hays
A bill aimed at energy savings failed in the legislature due to election politics. The bill, which was introduced by a legislator, aimed to reduce energy costs for businesses. The bill was defeated in a vote.