

You only see that the money is not the most important thing in life when you have it.
Thursday Prime Rib
#4 Village Prime • 1 lb. Bone In, #2 • $22.95 • $29.95
#5 Village Prime • 1 lb. Bone In, #2 • $22.95 • $29.95

Woman wounded in early Sunday morning shooting

By Sarah Hays
A woman was wounded in a shooting in Seward County on Sunday morning. The woman, who was not identified, was shot in the leg. She was taken to a hospital and is expected to survive. The police are looking for a suspect. The shooting occurred in the early morning hours of Sunday.

Percent Receiving Food Stamps Use of food stamps rises in Seward County

Local authors donate to library

By Sarah Hays
A group of local authors has donated books to the Seward County library. The authors, including several well-known names, have given a collection of their works to the library's collection. The books will be available for borrowing by the community.

Kansas mom pleads no contest in 6-year-old daughter's death

By Sarah Hays
A Kansas mother has pleaded no contest to the death of her 6-year-old daughter. The mother, who was not named, is facing charges related to the death. The case is currently in court, and a verdict is expected.

Seward County man dies in fire

By Sarah Hays
A man from Seward County died in a fire that broke out in his home. The fire occurred in the early morning hours. The man was not injured, but the fire caused significant damage to the property. The cause of the fire is still under investigation.

City to give up property for school expansion

By Sarah Hays
A city council has voted to give up a piece of city property for a school expansion project. The property, which was owned by the city, will be transferred to the school district. The expansion is part of a larger plan to improve the school system.

Coffee with a candidate:

By Sarah Hays
A candidate for office is being interviewed for a coffee meeting. The meeting is being held at a local cafe. The candidate is expected to discuss his or her platform and answer questions from the community.

Geithner, in memoir, suggests White House asked him to bend truth on deficit

By Sarah Hays
A memoir by a former White House official suggests that the White House asked him to bend the truth on the deficit. The memoir, which is a bestseller, details the author's experiences in the White House and his views on the deficit. The author claims that the White House was aware of the true extent of the deficit but wanted to keep it hidden from the public.

County to conduct special work session tonight

By Sarah Hays
The Seward County board of commissioners is holding a special work session tonight. The session will focus on a specific issue. The board is expected to make a decision on the issue during the session.

Feds mum on Kansas prairie chicken law

By Sarah Hays
The federal government is silent on a new law regarding the prairie chicken in Kansas. The law, which was passed by Congress, aims to protect the prairie chicken. The federal government's silence has caused some concern among conservationists.

Energy savings bill fails amid election politics

By Sarah Hays
A bill aimed at energy savings has failed in Congress due to election politics. The bill, which was sponsored by a member of Congress, aimed to provide incentives for energy-saving measures. However, it was blocked by a procedural vote in the House of Representatives.