

You only see that the money is not the most important thing in life when you have it.
Thursday Prime Rib
#4 Village Plaza • Liberal, KS 67242-2020 • Reservations: 785-842-1111
Only 10 seats remain for this special anniversary celebration. $125.00 per person.

Woman wounded in early Sunday morning shooting

By Sarah Hays
A woman was wounded in a shooting in Seward County on Sunday morning. The shooting occurred in the early morning hours of Sunday, May 11, in the town of Seward. The woman, who was not named, was taken to a local hospital for treatment. The police are currently investigating the shooting and have not yet identified any suspects.

Percent Receiving Food Stamps Use of food stamps rises in Seward County

Local authors donate to library

By Sarah Hays
A group of local authors has donated a collection of their books to the Seward County Library. The authors, including several well-known local writers, have given their books to support the library's mission of providing access to books for all community members.

Kansas mom pleads no contest in 6-year-old daughter's death

By Sarah Hays
A Kansas mother has pleaded no contest to the death of her 6-year-old daughter. The case, which has been in the news for some time, involves allegations of child abuse. The mother is currently facing charges related to the death.

Seward County man dies in fire

By Sarah Hays
A man from Seward County died in a fire that broke out in his home. The fire occurred in the early morning hours of Sunday, May 11. The man was found in the home, and the fire department responded to the scene. The cause of the fire is still under investigation.

City to give up property for school expansion

By Sarah Hays
The City of Seward is set to give up a portion of its property to facilitate the expansion of a local school. The school board has requested the property, and the city council is expected to approve the request in the coming weeks.

Coffee with a candidate:

By Sarah Hays
A local candidate for office is participating in a 'coffee with a candidate' event. The event is designed to allow voters to meet with the candidate and ask questions about their platform and policies.

Geithner, in memoir, suggests White House asked him to bend truth on deficit

By Sarah Hays
Timothy W. Geithner, former director of the Federal Reserve, has written a memoir in which he suggests that the White House asked him to bend the truth regarding the federal deficit. Geithner's memoir provides a candid look at his time in government.

County to conduct special work session tonight

By Sarah Hays
Seward County is scheduled to hold a special work session tonight. The session will focus on discussing various county issues and potential solutions. The meeting is open to the public.

Feds mum on Kansas prairie chicken law

By Sarah Hays
The federal government has remained silent on a new law regarding the prairie chicken in Kansas. The law, which was recently passed by the state legislature, aims to protect the endangered bird.

Energy savings bill fails amid election politics

By Sarah Hays
A bill aimed at promoting energy savings has failed to pass in the legislature due to election politics. The bill, which would have provided incentives for energy-efficient buildings, was defeated in a close vote.