

You only see that the money is not the most important thing in life when you have it.
Thursday Prime Rib
#4 Village Plaza • Liberal, KS 67242-2020 • Reservations: 785-822-1111
Only 10 seats remain for this special anniversary celebration. $125.00 per person.

Woman wounded in early Sunday morning shooting

By Sarah Hays
A woman was wounded in a shooting in Seward County on Sunday morning. The shooting occurred in the early morning hours of Sunday, May 11, in the town of Seward. The woman, who was not named, was taken to a local hospital for treatment. The police are currently investigating the shooting and have not yet identified any suspects.

Percent Receiving Food Stamps Use of food stamps rises in Seward County

Local authors donate to library

Page 2A
A group of local authors and librarians gathered at the Seward County Library to donate books to the collection. The authors, including several well-known regional writers, presented their books to the library staff. The books will be available for borrowing by the community.

Kansas mom pleads no contest in 6-year-old daughter's death

By Sarah Hays
A Kansas mother has pleaded no contest to the death of her 6-year-old daughter. The case, which has been in the news for several months, involves the death of a young girl in a home. The mother is currently facing charges related to the incident.

Seward County man dies in fire

By Sarah Hays
A man from Seward County died in a fire that broke out in his home. The fire occurred in the early morning hours of Sunday, May 11. The man was found in the house and was pronounced dead at the scene. The cause of the fire is still under investigation.

City to give up property for school expansion

By Sarah Hays
The City of Seward is set to give up a portion of its property to the school district for a new school building. The school district has been planning for several years to expand its facilities to accommodate the growing student population. The city's decision is a significant step in the process.

Coffee with a candidate:

By Sarah Hays
A candidate for the upcoming election is participating in a 'coffee with a candidate' event. The event is designed to allow voters to meet the candidate and ask questions. The candidate is currently campaigning for the position of [specific position].

Geithner, in memoir, suggests White House asked him to bend truth on deficit

By Sarah Hays
Timothy W. Geithner, former director of the Federal Reserve, has written a memoir in which he suggests that the White House asked him to bend the truth regarding the deficit. Geithner's memoir provides a candid look at his time in the White House and his interactions with the administration.

County to conduct special work session tonight

By Sarah Hays
Seward County is scheduled to hold a special work session tonight. The session will focus on [specific agenda items]. The county board will be in session at the county administration center.

Energy savings bill fails amid election politics

By Sarah Hays
A bill aimed at promoting energy savings has failed to pass in the legislature. The bill, which was sponsored by a member of the legislature, was defeated due to opposition from other members. The failure of the bill is seen as a setback for energy conservation efforts.

Feds mum on Kansas prairie chicken law

By Sarah Hays
The federal government has remained silent on a new law passed in Kansas regarding the prairie chicken. The law, which was signed by the governor, aims to protect the prairie chicken population. The federal government's silence has raised questions about its stance on the issue.

LEADER & TIMES

City to give up property for school expansion
Geithner, in memoir, suggests White House asked him to bend truth on deficit

