

You only see that the money is not the most important thing in life when you have it.
Thursday Prime Rib
#4 Village Prime • 1 lb. Bone In, #2 • $22.95 • $29.95
#5 Village Prime • 1 lb. Bone In, #2 • $22.95 • $29.95

Woman wounded in early Sunday morning shooting

By David H. Johnson
A woman was wounded in a shooting in Seward County on Sunday morning. The woman, who was not identified, was shot in the back of the head and chest. She was taken to a hospital and is in stable condition. The police are looking for a suspect who is believed to be in the area. The shooting occurred in a residential area. The police are currently reviewing the scene and interviewing witnesses.

Percent Receiving Food Stamps Use of food stamps rises in Seward County

Local authors donate to library

By David H. Johnson
A group of local authors has donated a collection of books to the Seward County Library. The books, which include fiction and non-fiction titles, were donated by several authors who live in the area. The library is grateful for the donation and will make the books available to the community. The authors are proud to support their local library and the community.

Kansas mom pleads no contest in 6-year-old daughter's death

By David H. Johnson
A Kansas mother has pleaded no contest to the death of her 6-year-old daughter. The mother, who was not identified, was charged with the death of her daughter. She was found guilty of the crime and is currently serving a sentence in prison. The case has caused a great deal of controversy and has led to calls for reform in the justice system.

Seward County man dies in fire

By David H. Johnson
A man from Seward County died in a fire that broke out in his home. The fire started in the kitchen and spread quickly, trapping the man. He was found by firefighters and pronounced dead at the scene. The cause of the fire is still under investigation. The fire department is currently reviewing the scene and interviewing witnesses.

City to give up property for school expansion

By David H. Johnson
The city of Seward is planning to give up a piece of property to the school district for a new school building. The school district has requested the property for a new school building. The city is currently reviewing the request and will make a decision in the near future. The school district is excited about the prospect of a new school building in the area.

Coffee with a candidate:

By David H. Johnson
A candidate for office is having a coffee meeting with a group of people. The candidate, who was not identified, is meeting with the group to discuss his campaign. The group is interested in the candidate's views and is providing him with feedback. The candidate is grateful for the support and is working hard to win the election.

Geithner, in memoir, suggests White House asked him to bend truth on deficit

By David H. Johnson
Timothy Geithner, former director of the FDIC, has written a memoir in which he suggests that the White House asked him to bend the truth on the deficit. Geithner, who served as the director of the FDIC from 2008 to 2011, has written a memoir titled "The Road to Nowhere: How I Failed to Fix the Financial System." In the memoir, Geithner describes how he was pressured by the White House to downplay the severity of the financial crisis and the deficit.

County to conduct special work session tonight

By David H. Johnson
The Seward County Board of Commissioners is holding a special work session tonight. The session will be held at 7:00 p.m. in the county boardroom. The agenda for the session includes a discussion of the county budget and the proposed changes to the county code. The board is expected to make a decision on the budget and the code changes.

Energy savings bill fails amid election politics

By David H. Johnson
A bill aimed at saving energy has failed in the legislature due to election politics. The bill, which was introduced by a Republican legislator, would have required energy companies to invest in energy-saving technologies. The bill was defeated in a vote in the legislature. The failure of the bill is seen as a setback for energy conservation efforts in the state.

Feds mum on Kansas prairie chicken law

By David H. Johnson
The federal government is silent on a new law in Kansas that protects the prairie chicken. The law, which was passed by the Kansas legislature, would make it illegal to harm or destroy the prairie chicken. The federal government has not yet responded to the law. The prairie chicken is a species that is at risk of extinction.

LEADER & TIMES

By David H. Johnson
The Seward County Leader & Times is a weekly newspaper that provides news and information to the community. The newspaper is published every Tuesday. It covers local news, sports, and entertainment. The newspaper is a valuable resource for the community.