

You only see that the money is not the most important thing in life when you have it.
Thursday Prime Rib
#4 Village Prime • 1 lb. Bone In, #2 • $22.95 (2014)
#10 Village Prime • 1 lb. Bone In, #2 • $22.95 (2014)

Woman wounded in early Sunday morning shooting

By Sarah Hays
A woman was wounded in a shooting in Seward County on Sunday morning. The victim, who was not identified, was shot in the back and was taken to a hospital. The police are currently investigating the case.

Local authors donate to library

Page 2A
A group of local authors and librarians have donated books to the Seward County Library. The books include various genres and are intended to support the library's collection.

Kansas mom pleads no contest in 6-year-old daughter's death

A Kansas mother has pleaded no contest to the death of her 6-year-old daughter. The case is currently being reviewed by the state's attorney.

Seward County man dies in fire

A man from Seward County died in a fire that broke out in his home. The fire caused significant damage to the property.

City to give up property for school expansion

The city council has voted to give up a portion of city property to facilitate the expansion of a local school. The decision was made after a public hearing.

Coffee with a candidate:

A candidate for office is participating in a 'coffee with a candidate' event. The event is open to the public and provides an opportunity for voters to meet with the candidate.

Geithner, in memoir, suggests White House asked him to bend truth on deficit

In his memoir, former Treasury Secretary Timothy Geithner suggests that the White House asked him to bend the truth regarding the federal deficit. Geithner's comments have sparked controversy.

County to conduct special work session tonight

The Seward County Board of Commissioners will hold a special work session tonight. The session is expected to address several key issues.

Energy savings bill fails amid election politics

A bill aimed at promoting energy savings has failed to pass. The failure is attributed to political considerations surrounding an upcoming election.

Feds mum on Kansas prairie chicken law

The federal government has remained silent on a new law regarding the prairie chicken in Kansas. The law is intended to protect the species.

Energy savings bill fails amid election politics

A bill aimed at promoting energy savings has failed to pass. The failure is attributed to political considerations surrounding an upcoming election.