

You only see that the money is not the most important thing in life when you have it.
Thursday Prime Rib
#4 Village Plaza • Liberal, KS 67242-2020 • Reservations: 785-822-1111
Only a select menu items are available on Wednesdays & Saturdays.

Woman wounded in early Sunday morning shooting

By Sarah Hays
A woman was wounded in a shooting in Seward County on Sunday morning. The shooting occurred in the early morning hours of Sunday, May 11, in the town of Seward. The woman, who was not named, was taken to a local hospital for treatment. The police are currently investigating the shooting and have not yet identified any suspects.

Percent Receiving Food Stamps Use of food stamps rises in Seward County

Local authors donate to library

Page 2A
A group of local authors and writers have donated their books to the Seward County Library. The donation includes a variety of titles, including fiction, non-fiction, and children's books. The library is grateful for the support and will be making the books available to the community.

Kansas mom pleads no contest in 6-year-old daughter's death

By Sarah Hays
A Kansas mother has pleaded no contest to the death of her 6-year-old daughter. The case involves a tragic incident that occurred in the town of Seward. The mother is currently facing charges related to the death. The case is currently in court, and a verdict is expected in the near future.

Seward County man dies in fire

By Sarah Hays
A man from Seward County died in a fire that broke out in his home. The fire occurred in the early morning hours of Sunday, May 11. The man was found in the fire and was pronounced dead at the scene. The cause of the fire is still under investigation.

City to give up property for school expansion

By Sarah Hays
The City of Seward is planning to give up a portion of its property to accommodate the expansion of a local school. The school board has requested the property, and the city council is currently reviewing the request. The expansion is expected to improve the quality of education for students in the area.

Coffee with a candidate:

By Sarah Hays
A local candidate for office is participating in a 'coffee with a candidate' event. The event is designed to allow voters to meet with the candidate and ask questions. The candidate is currently running for the position of [insert position]. The event will be held on [insert date and time].

Geithner, in memoir, suggests White House asked him to bend truth on deficit

By Sarah Hays
Timothy W. Geithner, in his memoir, suggests that the White House asked him to bend the truth regarding the deficit. Geithner, who served as the director of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, discusses his experiences in the financial industry and his role in the government. He claims that he was pressured to provide misleading information to the public.

County to conduct special work session tonight

By Sarah Hays
Seward County is scheduled to hold a special work session tonight. The session will focus on [insert topic]. The county board will be discussing various issues related to the topic and making decisions on the best course of action. The session is open to the public.

Feds mum on Kansas prairie chicken law

By Sarah Hays
The federal government is silent on a new law regarding the prairie chicken in Kansas. The law, which was recently passed by the state legislature, aims to protect the prairie chicken population. However, the federal government has not yet responded to the law, leaving many in the state uncertain about its effectiveness.

Energy savings bill fails amid election politics

By Sarah Hays
A bill aimed at promoting energy savings has failed in the legislature due to election politics. The bill, which would have provided incentives for energy-efficient buildings, was defeated in a vote. The failure is attributed to the political climate and the upcoming elections.