

You only see that the money is not the most important thing in life when you have it.
Thursday Prime Rib
#4 Village Plaza • Liberal, KS 67242-2020 • Reservations: 785-842-1111
Only a short drive from the historic downtown area, this restaurant is a local favorite.

Woman wounded in early Sunday morning shooting

By Sarah Hays
A woman was wounded in a shooting in Seward County on Sunday morning. The woman, who was not identified, was shot in the back of the head and chest. She was taken to a hospital and is in stable condition. The police are currently investigating the shooting and have not yet identified any suspects.

Percent Receiving Food Stamps Use of food stamps rises in Seward County

Local authors donate to library

By Sarah Hays
A group of local authors has donated a collection of their books to the Seward County Public Library. The collection includes a variety of genres, including fiction, non-fiction, and children's books. The authors are proud to see their work being made available to the community.

Kansas mom pleads no contest in 6-year-old daughter's death

By Sarah Hays
A Kansas mother has pleaded no contest to the death of her 6-year-old daughter. The mother, who was not identified, was charged with the child's death. She is currently facing charges of child abuse and neglect. The case is currently in court.

Seward County man dies in fire

By Sarah Hays
A man from Seward County died in a fire on Monday night. The fire broke out in a home on the east side of the county. The man, who was not identified, was found in the home. The cause of the fire is still under investigation.

City to give up property for school expansion

By Sarah Hays
The City of Seward is planning to give up a portion of its property to the school district for a new school building. The school district has been in negotiations with the city for several months. The new building is expected to be completed next year.

Coffee with a candidate:

By Sarah Hays
A candidate for the upcoming election is participating in a 'coffee with a candidate' event. The event is being held at a local cafe and is open to the public. The candidate will be available to answer questions and hear from voters.

Geithner, in memoir, suggests White House asked him to bend truth on deficit

By Sarah Hays
Timothy W. Geithner, former director of the Federal Reserve, has written a memoir in which he suggests that the White House asked him to bend the truth on the deficit. Geithner's memoir is a candid look at his time in the White House and his role in the financial crisis.

County to conduct special work session tonight

By Sarah Hays
Seward County is holding a special work session tonight. The session will be held at the county administration center and will focus on the county's budget and other important issues. The session is open to the public.

Feds mum on Kansas prairie chicken law

By Sarah Hays
The federal government is silent on a new law regarding the prairie chicken in Kansas. The law was passed by the state legislature but has not yet been signed by the governor. The federal government's stance on the law is unclear.

Energy savings bill fails amid election politics

By Sarah Hays
A bill aimed at energy savings has failed in the legislature due to election politics. The bill was introduced by a member of the legislature but did not have enough support to pass. The failure of the bill is seen as a setback for energy conservation efforts.