Consumers losing doctors with new insurance plans
 Many consumers are losing their doctors as new insurance plans are introduced. This is because many doctors do not accept the new plans, leaving their patients without a primary care physician. This is a significant issue for many people, as they need a doctor to care for their health. The new insurance plans are often more expensive than the old ones, and many doctors do not want to accept them. This is leaving many people without a doctor, which is a serious problem.
