City approves land transfer for school expansion plans
A 10-acre parcel of land in the city of St. Rose's has been approved for transfer to the St. Rose's School District for use as a school expansion site. The city council voted 6-2 in favor of the transfer. The school district plans to build a new elementary school on the site. The transfer is subject to certain conditions, including the school district's obligation to pay for the cost of the transfer. The city council also approved a resolution of support for the school district's expansion plans.

Fun in the outdoors at OK Kids Day
A group of children and their families enjoyed a day of fun in the outdoors at OK Kids Day. The event was held at the St. Rose's School District and featured a variety of activities, including a scavenger hunt, a relay race, and a water balloon fight. The children were supervised by St. Rose's School District staff and volunteers. The event was a success and the children had a great time.

Greiners walking the nation praising God
A group of people known as the Greiners are walking across the United States, praising God and spreading the message of the Gospel. They are currently in the state of Oklahoma and plan to continue their journey across the country. The Greiners are a diverse group of people, including men, women, and children. They are dressed in simple clothing and carry a sign that says "Jesus is the Answer". They are being followed by a large group of people, many of whom are also praising God. The Greiners are a source of inspiration and joy for many people.

Rep. Huelskamp pursues prairie chicken protest
Rep. Louie Gohmert (R-TX) has introduced a bill to protect the prairie chicken. The bill is titled the "Prairie Chicken Protection Act" and is designed to prevent the prairie chicken from being hunted or killed. The prairie chicken is a species of bird that is found in the prairie region of the United States. It is a protected species and is listed as a threatened species under the Endangered Species Act. The bill is designed to provide additional protection for the prairie chicken and to ensure that it is not hunted or killed. The bill is currently in committee and is expected to be brought to a vote in the House of Representatives.

911 caller: Where can I buy some marijuana?
A 911 caller in the state of Oklahoma asked the dispatcher where they could buy marijuana. The dispatcher responded that they did not know where to buy marijuana and that it was illegal to buy marijuana in Oklahoma. The caller then hung up the phone. The incident highlights the issue of marijuana legalization in Oklahoma. While some people in Oklahoma support the legalization of marijuana, others oppose it. The issue is currently being debated in the state legislature.

Manning seeking gender treatment, Defense Secretary Chuck Hagel OKs move
Defense Secretary Chuck Hagel has approved a request from Private First Class Bradley Manning to receive gender reassignment surgery. Manning is a member of the U.S. Army and has been serving in Afghanistan. Manning has been diagnosed with gender dysphoria and has been seeking treatment for it. Hagel's approval of Manning's request is a significant step towards recognizing the rights of transgender service members. Manning's case has received widespread media attention and has sparked a debate about the rights of transgender people in the military.

Consumers losing doctors with new insurance plans
A new wave of insurance plans is causing many consumers to lose their doctors. The new plans are often designed to save money for the insurer, but they often result in higher out-of-pocket costs for the consumer. Many consumers are finding that their preferred doctors are not in-network with the new plans. This is forcing consumers to either switch doctors or pay out-of-pocket for their care. The issue is a major concern for many consumers and is being addressed by consumer advocates.
