

The pleasures of life can be both innocent and guilty.
Stew Cronin ERIC Home of the BIG WOODY!
A Village Plaza in Liberal, KS 67228-2648 • Monday - Thursday

Making an im'pression
Vehicle cranes into press building
Page 2

Reddon Seniors celebrate
Baccalaureate
Page 3

Energy rate increase set for early 2015
Page 2

Parents rail against
Common Core math
Page 2

Miss Kansas Pageant announces 'Kansas Choice Award'
Page 10

United Way
Seward County United Way
United Way one of area's largest charities

Report: Thousands of convicted criminals freed while awaiting deportation proceedings

LEADER & TIMES
THURSDAY MAY 14, 2014
PLAYOFF PICTURE
Local Cal High League starts postseason tonight Saturday

Miss Kansas Pageant announces 'Kansas Choice Award'
The 2014 Miss Kansas Pageant will be held on Saturday, May 17, at the Sheraton Hotel in Topeka, Kansas. The winner of the pageant will represent Kansas at the Miss USA pageant in Las Vegas, Nevada. The pageant will also announce the 'Kansas Choice Award' winner, who will receive a cash prize and a trip to the state capital.

Report: Thousands of convicted criminals freed while awaiting deportation proceedings
A report from the American Immigration Law Foundation (AILF) states that thousands of convicted criminals are being released from federal custody while awaiting deportation proceedings. The report claims that the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) is releasing these individuals because they are unable to pay their bond. The report also claims that the DHS is releasing these individuals because they are unable to attend their court hearings. The report states that this practice is a violation of federal law and that it poses a significant risk to public safety.